Principles of Wondrous Monetary Peace and Free
Chicken McNuggets ...

Meditate upon these thoughtful inspections of financial spirit-dowsing and quasi-leftist chicanery ...

Take time to confer with investing gurus and vampire spirit guides ...

- Know that cash is meant to run, its velocity exceeding light, money shall pursue ends and ends shall become filled with crappola - please buy more crap!
- You are not alone, we are all rolled into the same burrito of despair. Say to yourself, "my despair is crap, so buy more crap - at WALMART homies".
- Gold is Mold! (at least this rhymes bitch)
- Your POO might be food, ... maybe? Mix it with some Nutella and spread it on a cracker why don't ya! Smell your own power!
- See that your mind is filled with joy each time you hear that little buzzer at the automated checkout kiosk - ya know, the one you hear when you scan your Top Ramen 6 pack.
- Top Ramen and Pinto Beans are liberating - eat them!
- A 1 Trillion dollar platinum coinage is for love my friends and love is good, ergo - support my fucking coin.
- Bitcoin is filled with dark demons and really complicated algorithms. Why don't you go buy a McRibb Sandwich?
- The "debt ceiling" limits our awareness. Who needs ceilings? Ceilings keep the farts from dissipating. Free your spirit gas and free yourself from "debt ceilings".
- The way of money is the infinite walk towards the cliff of goodness.
- To split a dollar in two is to produce a miracle and Jesus would love us for it - he cut the cheese!

- ➔ Doom and gloom pay no rent, optimism pays for the pizza and your credit card can still buy one more fucking pizza. So, call Pagliacci's and buy the goddam pizza!
- ➔ Paul Krugman and J.M. Keynes are loving prophets of the all beatifying triple-plus-good fiat genii who makes for us a good place to not so much feel quite so lame.
- ➔ Love your cats! Your cats have special thoughts about YOU!
- ➔ Why not bend the man to break the ignorance? Why not break the bank to thank the good lord for more free money? Why not just hug your friends? Really... Your friends could use a hug... And, while you are doing this, think about buying a McRibb Sandwich...
- ➔ From what animal, and which part of the beast, does the McRibb come? Meditate on this...
- ➔ Where is the "McNugget" on the Chicken? How many McNuggets does a typical chicken possess?
- ➔ Please - love the furry creatures of the earth.
- ➔ "Good thing money is infinite so we can get a backhoe & cement truck to fill in this tunnel created because we think we can stop drug use." citation from:
